RULES AND IMPORTANT REMINDERS

In order for Freeway's Rooo Rally to be successful, there are a few rules for all of us to observe and following. We represent the Greyhound community at large and need to leave a positive impression wherever we go. With your paid Registration, you acknowledge that you have read the following guidelines and the few rules that apply and are in total agreement:

- 1) Please be responsible and clean up after your dog(s)! We have dog pooh bags available and trash receptacles for disposal of the pooh. I would hate to clean pooh off my new boots!
- 2) Quality Inn has a few rules that apply to all guests and pets. Please be considerate and abide by these requests.
- 3) It is a good idea to bring an extra sheet or blanket to cover the hotel bed to minimize hair on the furniture and bedding.
- 4) Obviously, if your dog is prone to destruction when left alone, please have someone with your dog at all times to prevent damage to property and/or your dog. Or bring a crate for your dog to stay in if left alone. We are attempting to secure pet sitters to stay with your dog should need be, but most of the activities - even our dinners are dog friendly and our best friend can go everywhere with you. The outside porch at La Brisa seats 45 and our Greyhounds are welcome to stare at you while you eat.
- 5) We have a designated dog walk area. There is a lot of grass at the Quality Inn, but try to persuade your grey to do his/her business in the designated area. Please do not allow your dog to urinate on buildings, sidewalk, flowers or shrubbery. We have volunteers who can assist you to wash away urine 'mistakes' and pooh-you-cannot-pick-up!
- 6) No Flexi leashes please. Please make sure your grey's collar fits and is secure. All dogs must have their name and current owner info attached to their collar. If your dog's tag has your home number we suggest replacing this tag with your cell phone number or attaching a temporary tag with cell phone and hotel phone numbers.
- 7) We will be using yellow bandanas (CAUTION) alerting others that this dog may have an issue with different things, such as sniffing or approaching face on or even small dogs. It also signals any handicap such as deafness or blindness. If you see a dog wearing a yellow CAUTION bandana please ask the owner before approaching. Also, muzzles are up to the discretion of the owner.
- 8) Lost dog - Everything stops and everyone looks until the dog is found. Then we all go to the Saloon for a drink!

9) You will be given a Slap Bracelet at Check-In identifying you as a guest, vendor or service professional. You must wear your bracelet at all times or go to Jail.

10) A big ROOO - thank you.
